Hey Mr. Rascov,

I found how to get the transcript from a chat. I pasted it below, in case the transcript you receive somehow doesn't work out. It only starts where I came in though.

Have a nice week,

Ashley

JeffR: I like the photos and especially the close of of the people

JeffR: Great clothes

WvrchwGst1: Is it worth getting the upgraded Vimeo account?

WvrchwGst1: Thanks! Lots of money goes into those ;)

JeffR: Yes it seems better quality

JeffR: Hi ashley

WvrchwGst1: Okay. I'll have to check that out then

WwashleGst6: Hi

WvrchwGst1: Hi Ashley

JeffR: Well more upload space, so long video and better quality

JeffR: And HD

WvrchwGst1: Okay. It took a 1/2 hour to get my video up there

WwashleGst6: That's good to know about the HD, thought that was standard.

WwashleGst6: Sometimes Youtube takes that long to upload as well

JeffR: Hi Ashley did you see the videos on vimeo, I saw yours this week

JeffR: Yes the free version has 500 mB limit pre week

JeffR: I really like your SF picture Ashley

WwashleGst6: Yes I did since yesterday. I see there are some more to watch

WvrchwGst1: It's a great video

WvrchwGst1: I need to work on my font use.

JeffR: I like the B&W format of the pictures

WwashleGst6: Oh that is a great video, though I'm actually under Marie on Vimeo, it's my middle name. :)

JeffR: Oh sorry, OK

WwashleGst6: It's no problem, totally understandable

JeffR: Your was the old timey look, chaplin like?

JeffR: Still B&W

WwashleGst6: Yeah the Harold Lloyd one

WvrchwGst1: It's a great video. What program did you use to put it all together?

WwashleGst6: Well the first was with Adobe AfterEffects, the slideshow with iMovie

WwashleGst6: *AfterEffects

WvrchwGst1: ah, okay

JeffR: OK where are you going next

JeffR: I guess I am saying what type of movie you want to make next

JeffR: The next lesson we will cover recoring voice and music, then sync images, pictures or video

JeffR: You should think of topic now, because I leave subject up to you

WwashleGst6: Oh I see

WwashleGst6: It's going to be our voice right?

WvrichwGst1: I'm thinking of a tribute to my wife's uncle who passed away this morning. He did a lot of stage acting in L.A, he was also a graphic artist so I'd like to incorporate some of his ideas

JeffR: Yes your voice or friend, but I want you to record a voice.

WwashleGst6: That's an awesome idea

JeffR: Yes thats sounds fine Rich

JeffR: Maybe get some old photos and footage you can use

WvrichwGst1: My concern is that I don't have actual video of him and don't know how long it would take me to get some but I can ask his friends

JeffR: Thats fine maybe use a final project and think of something else for next lesson

JeffR: It can be photos again for now, the more important is we learn to record audio

JeffR: Are you both using Mac

WwashleGst6: Yeah I'm using Mac

WvrichwGst1: Okay. Thanks Jeff. My wife said we have lots of old pictures but it'll take a few weeks to get them scanned. I'll think of something else.

WvrichwGst1: I'm on a PC

JeffR: That fine, again I will cover Audacity whcih work on both Mac and Windows the same.

JeffR: What version of windows Rich

WvrichwGst1: I was playing around with it about an hour back. It looks fun! Vista at the moment

JeffR: OK Some students were having problems with Windows 7, but I think it works. I guess it is Beta

JeffR: How about other classes you are taking this semeater

JeffR: that is semester

WwashleGst6: There are some tutorials online that show how to use Audacity with Vista

WwashleGst6: About 5 classes

JeffR: wow thats alot, which classes

WvrichwGst1: I'm only taking two. Animation 2 (maya) and this class :). Wow... 5!

JeffR: I do have a person looking for someone to make a video, I am looking in my email

WwashleGst6: This class, your Digital Media class, Philsophy, Economics, & an Special Effects class

WvrichwGst1: I'll check out the tutorials for Audacity for Vista. I didn't do more than record my voice and make me sound evil

WwashleGst6: Hehe, check out http://manual.audacityteam.org/index.php?title=FAQ:Recording#Windows_and_Linux_2

WwashleGst6: They run into all the troubleshoot issues you may have and more

WvrichwGst1: Thanks!

JeffR: Ok heres a author that was to make a promotional video for her books, address <http://www.marytomasi.com/>

WvrichwGst1 entered the room.

WvrichwGst1: Yikes. what happened?

JeffR: I am not sure what she want, but if you know someone to make her video it might be fun project

JeffR: It is kinda a thriller series

JeffR: She live in Los gatos

WvrichwGst1: Hmmm... interesting

WwashleGst6: Oh I see how it would work

JeffR: Heres her email

JeffR: Hello,

JeffR: I'm a local author of stories for young through adult readers. I've saturated my local market (Los Gatos) with marketing and am planning on moving to a wider audience. I have a web site: www.marytomasi.com; am on Facebook with a fan page; and on Twitter as well. I have been advised to do a 'commercial' on Youtube, talking about my books, target audience, writing style, characters, etc.

JeffR: I'm a novice at anything technical and have limited (almost no) dollars, and was further advised to check out my local Community college to see if the media department could/would do this as a class project.

JeffR: Is this possible?

JeffR: Mary Tomasi Dubois

JeffR: Author of: The Mariner's Secret, Danger in the Jeweled City

JeffR: And other books for young readers and adults alike

JeffR: My Smashwords profile: <http://www.smashwords.com/profile/view/Ramy67>

JeffR: Sample or purchase books: <http://www.smashwords.com/books/view/1408>

WwashleGst6: What a smart idea, many ways you could go about this

JeffR: Just email her or call her I think info is on web site

WvrichwGst1: Jeff, how do you save the info in this chat?

JeffR: I will post the info for the chat, Last chat we had I had problems saving and I still need to post that, but hopefully this one will work. it is with my email, if you sign up as member of tappedin.org it is free you will get the transcript

WvrichwGst1: ah, okay

WvrichwGst1: Thanks!

JeffR: OK I am going to put my boys to bed

WvrichwGst1: Okay

WvrichwGst1: I'll send you an email with my next video idea

JeffR: I am sure we will see more video this weekend on the Vimeo site

JeffR: Some students are still working

WwashleGst6: Have a good night everyone and I'll go watch yours Richard

JeffR: I will post recording video this weekend and I have good samples from last semester class

JeffR: That is recording voice examples

JeffR: thanks

WvrichwGst1: Have a good night! looking forward to more videos
